

Becoming a Man of Valor Conferences

Bob Reccord connects with men....ask anyone. Whether it's in a large group setting like Promise Keepers' rallies or a small conference center, Bob connects with the guys. One area of giftedness is carrying that connection into one-on-one conversations that pop up during the course of a conference or retreat. Bob doesn't just share a message from God's Word, he sticks around and takes the extra time to hear what God is doing in the lives of these men, responding to their individual questions and praying for them in their challenges.

You get a life-changing conference and 6-week small group follow-up...all for under $49/man!
