On the Road: Meditations for Men Who Travel

Edited By: Wm. Marshall Duke, Rick Schatz

Section by Bob Reccord Do you find yourself on the road often, possibly for business? Have you faced a long solitary evening by yourself in the course of the day? Times like these are rife with temptation. It helps to be equipped with some inspiration to resist the temptation to fill your mind with something that could be detrimental to your relationships with God and your family. Written by those who have faced these same circumstances, On the Road will help keep your resolve strong.

And so it was on the night of April 14, 1912, that the Titanic sank to the bottom of the Atlantic in the frigid black of night, the victim of a giant iceberg hidden beneath the surface. The unsinkable luxury liner had lost a battle with its enemy below the waterline…I find that too many marriages are like the Titanic. Struck by dangers lurking beneath the surface.

FORGED BY FIRE | Click Here for info on our Men's Conferences SINGLE BOOK

Forged by Fire

by Bob Reccord

"How do we deal with the pitfalls of life?" How do we deal with the experiences we all have of emotional, physical, and spiritual heights and depths? Bob Reccord presents Joseph of the Old Testament as the exemplary model. Forged by Fire uses the metaphor of a blacksmith's fire and anvil to teach us how experiences and circumstances mold us into the image of one who can be used by God. We may not always understand, but like Joseph, we need only to trust in our understanding of God's faithfulness and his sovereign grace.

LAUNCHING YOUR KIDS FOR LIFE | Click here for info on our parenting conferences
SINGLE BOOK

LAUNCHING YOUR KIDS FOR LIFE:

It Doesn't Just Happen by Accident

By Bob and Cheryl Reccord

It's inevitable: Our children actually do grow up and leave our nests. So the question is not Will they leave home? but How prepared will they be when they leave home?

We surveyed the landscape of resources on parenting and found that most tell how to give our children roots. But we know another element crucial to the development of our children: Giving them the blessing of wings. If we as parents miss this vital step, then as a family we'll be like the relay-race team that has record-winning sprinters who can't pass off the baton successfully. Sure, their times may be great, but they will lose the race.

Through this book, the Reccord's offer 8 biblical principles to help you successfully launch your child (or grandchild!) for life. While parenting in today's world is challenging, God's Word offers practical advice that will enable your child to be all God designed him or her to be! $20

MADE TO COUNT | Call us for information on our church-wide Made to Count Journey 770-380-0423 SINGLE BOOK

Made to Count by Bob Reccord and Randy Singer

All of us have heard the passionate pleas of pastors and evangelists for those sitting in the pews to listen to God's call. And that call always seems to be to the mission field or to benevolence work in our own country or ministry positions in the church.

Rarely, if ever, have we heard a pastor urge us to seek our call in the secular marketplace, or to impact the world by raising good children. But that's exactly what Bob Reccord and Randy Singer are doing in this revolutionary book. Leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention's North American Mission Board, Reccord and Singer reveal how God calls people to the most surprising places and unlikely professions for the purpose of changing our world.

"This captivating book will challenge your thinking on the call of God, help you discover the purpose for your life, and motivate you with stories of those used by God to make a difference."--Bill Bright

The eight biblical Principles guiding The Journey are:

1. God prepared a unique plan and calling for your life even before you were born.
2. God calls you to a life-changing relationship with Him through Jesus Christ.
3. God calls you to partner with Him in a mission that is bigger than you are.
4. God calls you to be on mission with Him right where you are—starting now.
5. God reveals His mission through His Word, His Spirit, wise counsel, and His work in circumstances around you.
6. God repeatedly brings you to a crossroads of choice as He forges you for His mission.
7. God guides and provides for your mission one step at a time.
8. When you answer God's call, you experience His pleasure and change your world.
